YOUR TUTORS FOR THE WEEKEND

Chris Coe is the consummate musician, performer and tutor. She is famous for her voice workshops and has taught at universities and festivals throughout the UK for many years. Many of the star performers of a new generation are graduates of the Chris Coe singing workshops. Folkus welcomes Chris back to Waddow.

Phil Chisnall became fascinated with guitars at an early age. Within a few years he was performing as lead guitarist in several bands, appearing throughout the North West of England. Still performing, whilst being a senior lecturer at a college teaching music and guitar. Phil will tutor the advanced guitar group.

Terry Coyne is one of the finest Whistle players performing on the folk circuit today. From Liverpool, Terry has worked with several bands and groups and is returning by popular demand.

Steve Keene learned classical violin from being seven years old and played with many orchestras. However, he discovered Irish Fiddle music in his teens and was soon an active member of the Liverpool Ceilidh Band. He later received a Diploma in Traditional Music. Steve is a professional teacher and tutor making his first visit to Waddow.

Will Lang is a graduate of the Folkworks teaching programmes in the North East. He is reckoned to be one of the finest Bodhran players of the current generation. Will is the Bodhran tutor for the weekend. He is returning by popular request.

Brian Peters is an international performer having toured in America. Well known on the British folk scene, Brian will teach advanced Melodeon techniques and also have his Anglo Concertina on hand to help any budding player. Brian is at Waddow on Friday evening and Saturday daytime.

Robin Shepherd is returning to Waddow by popular demand. Robin teaches Melodeon and is a fine Fiddle player. Robin can dance a remarkable solo Morris Jig whilst playing the Fiddle.

John Les & Gill Williams were pioneers of the Blue Grass Movement in the UK. As the group "High Street" they have toured the USA. John & Gill will be teaching Mandolin, demonstrating different tunings and techniques. In addition Les will teach 5 String Banjo which is a great opportunity to learn to play a second instrument. John and Gill are returning to Waddow for a second time.

Jenny Coxon will be joining the team on the Sunday to demonstrate Dulcimer techniques. Bring your Dulcimers with you.

Our regular Folkus tutors will be Derek Gifford who will be teaching intermediate styles of Guitar and also bowed Psaltery. Rusty & Stu Wright are teachers of Guitar, Fiddle, Ukulele and Spoons. Jenny Shottliff is a Fiddle tutor and will be on the Musical Aid post with Rusty and Stu. Alan Bell is a Folklorist, English Concertina player, singer songwriter and Chairman of Folkus.
